Simon Ward bio

In one sense, I guess you could say that, for me, in the beginning was the wheel. The journey of a lifelong passion began on the 15th July 1972 when I saw my first Grand Prix, aged just eight years old. The race that day was won by Emerson Fittipaldi in the iconic JPS Lotus... little did I know that 20 years later Emerson would become one of my clients!

Turning professional in 1986, the art is now internationally recognized, the passion never diminished, with the many hours at the easel, the buzz of being at a circuit, amongst the cars and drivers is still as strong as it was in 1972.

The work is in the private collections of many drivers and teams around the world, from Formula One, Le Mans, IndyCar and NASCAR. For this celebration there are two new subjects on display for the very first time, the Rodeo and Penn State Football

Words from our President...

Hope you are enjoying the remnants of winter! We have been busy at Lycoming Arts preparing a great 2023!

Outdoor Williamsport First Fridays will start back up in May with our UPMC event sponsor month. To stay up-to-date with all these happenings - "Like" us on FB at Lycoming Arts and Williamsport First Friday.

In the meantime, Lycoming Arts Gallery has Featured Artists scheduled that are not to be missed! International artist Simon Ward is showing in February. He will take us into the racing world from Indy cars to LeMans and Formula One. Unveiling for the first time ever, this exhibition will spotlight The Rodeo and Penn State Football!

Our College Town gallery will feature Hannah Bradley's "in memory" exhibit. Beautiful!

What else do you ask?

Raise the Region 2023 is gearing up! Watch for our posts on this exciting 30-hour event and "bump" times. Find us on the Raise the Region web page LYCOMING ARTS and our own website under "Donate - Raise the Region".

March & April we will host Lycoming College Art Education students. This is truly an exciting addition for us! We have always embraced art in education and are thrilled to share a part in this important training of future art teachers.

Arts in the Neighborhood is actively working on our workshop offerings for both Adult and Youth classes. Watch for those events on our Lycoming arts FB page and EventBrite.

We are looking forward to seeing you this season. Stop in...the art is fine!
